

5 Themes of Geography Guided Notes

Location:

Most _____ study begins with learning the location of places. Location can be _____ or _____.

Place:

Place describes the human and _____ characteristics of a location.

Physical characteristics include a _____ of the mountains, rivers, beaches, topography, animal and plant life of a place.

Human _____ include the human-designed cultural features of a place, from land use and architecture to forms of livelihood and religion to food and folk ways to transportation and communication networks.

Human Environment- Interaction:

This theme considers how _____ adapt to and modify the _____. Humans shape the landscape through their _____ with the land; this has both positive and negative effects on the environment.

Movement:

Humans move, a lot! In addition, ideas, fads, goods, resources, and communication all _____ distances. This theme studies movement and _____ across the planet.

Region:

Region divides the world into manageable units for _____ study. Regions have some sort of _____ that unifies the area.